

LUDDENDEN CONSERVATION SOCIETY

NEWSLETTER – JUNE 2008

PLANNING APPLICATIONS

There has been a planning application at Booth Terrace for a dwelling just behind the far end of Booth Terrace, which the Society has objected to on the grounds that it was located in an inappropriate position and in green belt.

MUSIC FOR ALL

Music for All is the theme adopted by the first Luddenden Music Festival, and is reflected by the wide range of entertainment lined up for the event this coming Saturday, 21st June. Starting at 11am, and continuing throughout the day, the festival offers a range of performances from classical recitals, folk music and schools' groups, through to traditional and early music, folk, rock and jazz. The festival is being staged by the Luddenden Mayor's fund, with grant assistance from Calderdale MBC, and all events are free to attend. The full line-up with times is as follows:

Grand Opening	11am	The Records	4.15pm
Alexander Binns	12 noon	St. Mary's Church Choir	5pm
Steve Wilkinson	12.45pm	Jonathan Taylor	5.45pm
Luddenden Dene School	1pm	Georgia Prosser	6.15pm
Lindsay Bridgwater	1.30pm	Roger Davies	7pm
Becky Taylor	2pm	State of Undress	7.45pm
Seeds of Time	2.30pm	Bobby Wellins	9pm
Nicola Naylor	3.15pm	Alan Barnes	9pm
Seeds of Time	3.45pm	Ceilidh in Lord Nelson	9pm
Is Shepherd	3.45pm

Access to the village will be extremely difficult on Saturday, and villagers are advised not to try to drive through the village throughout the day because of this. The whole day is a very ambitious project, and the organisers hope that local people will all find something that they would like to listen to within the programme. A programme, giving details of all the acts mentioned above, and the type of music they will be offering, is on sale on the day and beforehand from the Lord Nelson, and we hope that villagers will give the festival their support.

FAIR TRADE SALE

There will be another Fair Trade Coffee Morning at the Methodist Church (at the junction of High Street and New Road) on Saturday, July 5th from 10am until 12 noon. As usual, there will be cakes and other home-made produce, plants and gifts. Entry is 50p, including coffee and biscuits.

NEXT MEETING of the Society will be held in the Lord Nelson, at 7.45pm on Thursday, June 26th. All are invited.
