

LUDDENDEN CONSERVATION SOCIETY

SEPTEMBER 2009

MAYOR'S DAY

The usual mayor-making took place on Saturday, 12th September, which turned out to be a glorious summer day. Again, a good time was had by all, and many thousands of pounds were made for charity. It is a great credit to all concerned, and the money raised is a lifeline for many of the organisations taking part. May the custom long continue!

PLANNING APPLICATIONS

There have been no planning applications from the Luddenden area since our last meeting, and nothing to report on at all.

ART AND CRAFT EXHIBITION

The Luddenden art group, which meets in the Methodist Church on Monday mornings at 10am is holding an exhibition of their work this coming Friday and Saturday, in conjunction with the MacMillan nursing Largest Coffee Morning in the World Appeal. The exhibition will be open on the Friday from 10am until 2pm, and on the Saturday from 10am until 4pm. Home-made cakes and biscuits will be on sale with the coffee (or tea), and you can enjoy these, whilst looking at the art exhibits. All the proceeds of the refreshments will go to the MacMillan cancer nurses appeal. Some of the art work will be on sale, so come and enjoy yourself for half an hour, and support the art group and the cancer appeal. For anyone who is not quite sure where the Church is, it is at the junction of High Street and New Road, and there will, of course, be balloons outside.

NEXT MEETING

The next meeting of the Conservation Society will be this coming Thursday at 8pm in the Methodist Church. It will be the Annual General Meeting of the Society, and everyone is invited along as usual. The Society has now been in existence for a third of a century, having been founded in 1975. When some of the old photographs of Luddenden of that time are examined, it is possible to see how it has changed over the years, and many of the improvements that have occurred are due to the Society. If it is still to be here to celebrate a half century, it needs a constant flow of new members, willing to participate in all the activities, so do come along and give it a try.
